New Product Of The Year Award Winners Announced by Security Products Magazine

Anaheim, Calif. - Sept. 22, 2009 - Security Products magazine, the only integrated product magazine reaching the entire security market, announced the winners of its 2009 New Product of the Year Award at the annual ASIS International Seminar and Exhibits in Anaheim, Calif. today.

The Security Products New Product of the Year Award honors the outstanding product development achievements of security equipment manufacturers whose products are considered to be particularly noteworthy in their ability to improve workplace security. More than 60 entries were received in the inaugural year of this contest. Ten grand prizewinners were honored in seven award categories:

Access Control —

Oberthur Technologies, ID-One™ PIV-BIO

Alarm, Fire and Gas Equipment —

Honeywell, 5870API Sensor

RSI Video Technologies, Videofied XL

Business Continuity —

HID Global, HID on the Desktop

Network-Centric Security —

Firetide Inc., HotPort 7000

Intransa, VideoAppliance

Perimeter Security —

Optex, REDSCAN RLS-3060

Video Surveillance —

MobIDEOS Inc., MobileCamViewer

QNAP Systems, VioStor-8040 NVR

"The entries were impressive. In talking with the judges, they were blown away by every portfolio we received," said Security Products Editor-in-Chief, Ralph C. Jensen.

In addition to being honored at ASIS, the grand prizewinners will be featured on the Security Products Web site, www.secprodonline.com, and highlighted in the December 2009 issue of Security Products magazine. All entries were showcased in the September 2009 issue of Security Products magazine. The magazine is distributed to more than 65,000 subscribers monthly as well as at trade events including ASIS.
